Struggling to find meaning amidst chaos, she had returned to the faith in which she had been raised. The young student stood up and asked:

If something is in me which can be called religious then it is the unbounded and I think you have to allow for the null case. Kajola marked it as to-read Jan 20, Although tellings of the legend name Albert Einstein as the faith-driven student, there is no reason to suppose the renowned physicist had anything to do with the fictive incident.

Light is an existing thing, but darkness is nonexistent. Evil is an incontestable and omnipresent fact of our existence.
