The protagonist on my copy recent edition looks blond to me, and, as you mention, none of the prominent female ...more No, but I wondered the same thing. It was cute, not my favorite of Pella's books, but I liked it enough to plan on checking out the sequel from the library. I like the way they used the literary tool of foreshadowing to building the plot line rising action.

The first and second were somewhat answered, and the third shrugged off as no. I'm assuming it's Victoria or Jordana, but they both have dark hair? Would love to read more of the series to know what happens . Judith Pella Tracie Peterson. It was clean and wholesome, but I was disappointed that it came to an abrupt conclusion with multiple unanswered questions.
