If you are interested you can sign up for mystery shopping jobs in your city. If you don't have any local grocery stores or shops that will hire fourteen-year olds, ask your parents and family friends if you can start a babysitting gig or odd jobs like yard work.

There seem to be some apps popping up that pay you out on simple stuff like take a picture of a product. After reading this, I think she just might be lazy. Also think about seasonal opportunities like summer camps and haunted houses. Try to find a better paying job than that! If that doesn't work, ask your family and friends if you can do any odd jobs, like mowing the lawn, cleaning their house, or babysitting. I tried it for a while and was ready to pull my hair.
