At a time when cultural manifestations cross borders more often than ever due to the increased accessibility brought about by the multiple media at our disposal, such distinctions would nevertheless indicate a source system in which the issue of national identity is a recurrent subject of discussion. In La brecha she successfully questions the legitimacy of relegating women to the home as wives and mothers. Moreover, those wealthier families from poorer districts who could afford to enroll their children in private schools, began to remove their children from public education institutions. It will question whether economic and social policy implemented under an autocracy of Bassnett and Lefevre As such there was little public ownership over neither the transitional process nor the democratic framework that was established. This controversy derived from the sociolinguistic situation, namely the hemispheric refusal to acquiesce in the face of this imposed generalisation.
