Victorians are often remembered for their obsession with death and mourning. Thanks for writing this, looking forward to reading the Tear Catchers piece on this subject. The entire practice is an unusual one and not one in which I would necessarily partake. Imagecourtesyofwww. Proponents of this view cite the many small bottles found in the tombs of the wealthy as evidence that tear catchers were used in ancient times. The Victorians revitalized this Tear Catchers with th I remember my father taking me to old graveyards when I was five, likely due to my Hungarian grandmother who took me to see distant relatives and would get upset if I ever walked over Tear Catchers graves.
