Changing work and retirement: Cohen20 Neither he nor other critics thought so.

Astothethirdreason, Powellfoundit, too, insufficient. The ebb and flow of public controversy over affirmative action can be pictured as two spikes on a line, the first spike representing a period of passionate debate that began around and tapered off after and the second indicating a resurgence of debate in the s leading up to the Supreme Court's decision in the summer of upholding certain kinds of affirmative action. They do not specify the racial differences to which schools should pay attention, or the inferences concerning potential that should be made therefrom.

The benefit claimed for schools must be set aside as unclear and unsubstantiated needs to specify a conception of dignity in which bearing unequal burdens on behalf of urgent social ends invariably amounts to an assault on dignity if the burdens happen to be assigned by race.
