Magic, adventure and a bouncy, talking cat who creates Nights Gift as needed. A book with numerous flaws, but the kitten more than makes up for it. This sounds too cute.

I like a book with a good story, where good triumphs against seemingly insurmountable odds. Determined to get away from his controlling royal parents, he takes off into the city Hex. The Nights Gift really took a turn for the better once he was introduced: IlikeabookwhereIamlookingforwardtothenextoneSo nobody's surprised when he unwittingly makes a deal with an undead alchemist. Nights Gift the end of the story I was grinning at the sheer audacity and wonder of the story, and at where I found myself and the characters at the end.
