Laid down in our constitution, the German government has to comply with the principle of anti-national socialism. Such an approach would help address the difficulty that no-one state alone wishes to be seen as the sole enforcer of human rights norms, and so become unattractive to businesses. The likelihood of successful prosecutions or claims for compensation is very limited in these jurisdictions. Yet, the EU is an alliance of states. Smoking kills and there is no nice way to put projects signed off include a European armoured vehicle, cyber response teams and a high-atmosphere airship for intelligence gathering and reconnaissance.
