In the end this was actually the bit I found most interesting. It is all wonderfully written, and it will keep you hanging on until the very end.

As your storyteller, I'd like to share the adventure with you younger YOU, though He is not even sure what is causing these trips, is it some aftermath of the LSD trips he has previously taken? These bizarre events are not dreams or fantasies. What about his budding film career, making the world a better place and finding a nice Jewish chick? Actually that shameful secret is secret at all, yet only Irv wants to know it. Which is, until he starts working with children that are just too much for him to handle. Which plays a huge part in the ending of book.
