I find that I don't really prefer books with just a male POV character. From the He learns a lot. He doesn't seem very cool on the first page and I loved all the surprises as he changes and grows In fact, I wasn't even sure I wanted to read this because of . All in all, it was a good read, and I would recommend to someone who enjoys a clean it is a grand start to the author's writing career, and is worthy entertainment. There's a prophecy about who's gonna be the next King and all BUT Errol's part in the story is very very very different and interesting.
