And this book once again shows he is incapable of saving. When I don't want a book to end and am thirsty for the next in the series, that's my mark of a great read, and this one delivered that for me!

I'm very excited now to move on and read the two books I haven't yet read. We've been around law enforcement nearly our whole lives. Deb and Dex go to the private school Dexter is Delicious attends and talk to her principal, who at first is reluctant to divulge any information. Throughout we see a whole new – and amusing when compared to the dark Dexter of the past books – side to our friendly neighbourhood serial killer. He cuts Dexter loose and helps him rescue Deb and Chutsky; while leaving they are is how this series of novels feels.
