This fascination with jazz leads Mutch to the story of Thelonious Monk, in whom she finds a kind of kindred spirit for Gabriel: During this sleep-deprived period she found solace in Alone Admiral Richard Byrd's memoir of his solitary stay at an isolated weather station. Do you know what slay is? Mutchparallels her own sleeplessness to that of polar explorer Richard E. It In this story you want to wrap your arms around Gabriel, the child who struggles in his isolation and the terror of a world that's been marked by loss of language, seizures and fear. This memoir finds a candid, capacious language--always curious, often stunning--for the states of mystery and wonder at its core. He lives in Wisconsin and on the web at www.
