Candace said: An erotic retelling of 'Beauty and the Beast', 'Depravity' proved to Kacey Adult Romance, certain parts take place in a well, whore house of sorts, .. more than the previous books--even though there are MANY repetitive scenes. .. There's a risk involved when the first book in a series is available for free.

I should like to put forward the hypothesis that the more neurotic a person is, the more will he or she be preoccupied with status, and the more will his or her sexuality be distorted to serve dominance-submission purposes rather than the end of obtaining pleasure. I loved it and as much as it felt fantastical it also read as if it was real. This review was originally posted on Because reading is better than real life.

I liked the steam-punk aspects and how the "beast" was portrayed. I will say no more because I'm terrified I might give everything away, but you must know that I highly recommend this book!!
