You really do need to begin at the beginning. At the end of the current phase, every other player who has a colony on that planet must send one of his or her ships from that planet to the warp. As a main player, after encounter cards are selected but before they are revealed, you may use this power to flee. That player must send one of his or her ships from the targeted system to the war. After encounter cards are discarded, you receive one reward for each ship your opponent had in the encounter. Tom, Joe, Annie, and Sammy go into this new seemingly impossible search while war -- both physical and financial -- is being waged between the U. If you have no Challenge Cards in your hand, discard your hand, draw seven new cards and return to the beginning of the pre-challenge phase.

Those who would harm the Ethics find themselves curiously repentant. At the end of the encounter, a fire which added to the defense's total is extinguished, and the fire token and fuel cards are discarded. The author has done a lot of research on his topic and he was able to weave a lot of factual information into his fictional plot to make a very entertaining story.
