This book had tons of potential. Library Journal Review Braff's debut novel tells the story of a boy torn between self-discovery and loyalty to his despotic father. If only his mother hadn't started college at thirty-six and fallen for her psychology professor.

Braff's rich, moving, and very funny first novel begins with a housewarming party. So it feeds itself, cyclically. Aug 05, Armand rated it it was ok.

So, this leaves Jacob as being his father's hope for the perfect son. And there are our family garden my husband is of the genus Narcissus which includes daffodils and jonquils and a host of other ornamental flowers.
